

JOIN LUMINIGHT FOR ONE WORLD. A MILLION LIGHTS!

See the beautiful light sculptures at Alameda County Fairgrounds

LumiNight is beautiful and wholesome way to honor wildlife and reminds us all that we have a responsibility to do our best on behalf of every animal on Earth.

WHAT:

Welcome to the wonderful of LumiNight: a walking safari through scenes from our magical planet revealed by immersive life-sized, and larger-than-life lantern sculptures created by Chinese artisans that includes a Forest of a Million Lights, dinosaurs, Chinese Zodiac animals, the Great Barrier Reef, the story of Noah's Ark, and animals both extinct and endangered.

Hundreds of large-scale internally lit creatures act as guides through the festivals of lights that dazzle and kindle the imagination. The layout is accompanied by an educational, interactive app and spans 8 acres and will make you feel as if you are up close with the wildlife first-hand. The awe-inspiring night out is infused with an educational messages for all ages.
