September Events at Alameda County Fairgrounds Brings Community Together

The Fairgrounds to Host Cultural Events, a Job Fair and More

Pleasanton, California – The Alameda County Fairgrounds and Event Center will host several events during the month of September that include food, music, shopping, tiny homes, and family fun.

156th Scottish Highland Gathering and Games kicks off the month and Labor Day weekend with two days of Scottish food, entertainment, and sports. The event also offers advance sale tickets for Whisky Tasting and Traskside Terrace Patio dining during the Opening Ceremonies each day. Open Saturday and Sunday, September 3-4, the Games promises shopping, live bands, classic cars, Celtic animals, and family fun! All tickets are sold online only.

TinyFest California, a Tiny Home and Nomadic Living Festival, is a new Show coming to the Fairgrounds on September 10 and 11. A great event for those who want to learn more about tiny living. There will be homes to view from tiny houses, houses on wheels, vans, school bus conversions, backyard cottages, and many more. The festival includes live music and great food.

California Soul-Food Cookout and Festival, another new show at the Fairgrounds, takes place on September 17 and 18 with a different concert each day. The two-day event includes a good old-fashioned cookout, combined with incredible soul food and music. The event will also include a Job Fair and Career Expo with companies from all industries including hospitality, retail, technical, and fast food. Recruiters from State Farm, Starbucks, and Target will be represented.

Halloween kicks off early on the Fairgrounds with the start of the popular Pirates of Emerson Haunted Themed Park. Building is underway for the annual Themed Park now celebrating 31 years. Open September 30 through October 31, the walking tour sells tickets online and only in advance.

The Alameda County Fairgrounds and Event Center is open all year, hosting over 250 events a year, as well as producing the annual Alameda County Fair. The 267-acre property in Pleasanton, California includes space for any kind of indoor or outdoor event, including concerts, weddings, corporate events, sports competitions, full ground festivals, celebrations, and more.
