Crafting Expo and Your Favorite Car Guys Are Back

Discounted Fair tickets available now, plus opportunities for Free admission

Pleasanton, Calif - The Alameda County Fairgrounds and Event Center is returning to the swing of steady events streaming through the gates again, with fun activities for all walks of life

The month kicks off with the Stamp & Scrapbook Expo on March 1 and 2, 2024. Paper crafters of all kinds can purchase the latest materials, watch free demos and workshops, and perfect their scrapbooking skills with this fun event designed for all levels. General admission is $12; children 12 years and under are free.

Finally, as the weather warms up the car shows come out! Goodguys will return March 23-24 for their first major car show of the season, the 40th Grundy Insurance All American Get-Together. Hundreds of American made cars and trucks of all years will be on display, plus lowrider hopping demos, a swap meet, show awards, and more. They will also feature the Goodguys' Classic Performance Products AutoCross racing series action featuring the "American Shootout". General admission is $28, Children (ages 7-12) $11, Children 6 years and under FREE. For discounted online tickets, please visit All American Get-Together.

Blood donations for the Pint for a Pass Blood Drive are now being accepted through June 1. Continuing our partnership with the American Red Cross, participants who donate blood at a mobile blood donation center within Alameda County will receive one single day admission to the 2024 summer Fair, valid for use from June 14 through 30.
