

2020 Alameda County Fair FAQ

Will there be a 2020 Fair this summer? Fair, previously planned for June 19-July 12, 2020, was canceled. We look forward to celebrating again with you in 2021.

I purchased Fair tickets (admission, parking, Fun Pack, Carnival Wristbands, Concert Seat, and Tasting Fest), do I get a refund? Our refund period for the 2020 Alameda County Fair has ended.

Are you still accepting applications for contests, competitions and exhibits? Our application period for Contests and Competitions has closed. Our Virtual Exhibits Show is live on our website to view winners and entries, please visit alamedacountyfair.com.

How did you host the Junior Livestock Auction this year? The 2020 VIRTUAL Auction has ended. Thank you to everyone who supported our youth.

Is there a Fun Run this summer? Yes, there was a Sun's Out, Fun's Out 5K Fun Run benefiting Sunflower Hill. The VIRTUAL run has ended. Thank you to everyone who supported Sunflower Hill and Alameda County Fair.

Was there Live Horse Racing in the Grandstands? Yes, Horse Racing was at the track from June 19-July 26, Friday-Sunday. Due to the Alameda County Health Order, spectators are not allowed on site unless dining at the Trackside Terrace Outdoor Dining Patio. Thank you to everyone who supported our racing team.

My elementary school signed up for a free school admission ticket, how do I get mine?
We will offer the program again next year.

I've had Box Seats for years, what happens to my Seniority? Previous box seat holders will continue to have first right of refusal for 2021 Live Horse Racing Dates.

My company enrolled in the Corporate Saving Program, what is next? Companies enrolled in our savings program will automatically be issued savings code for our next event. Stay tuned for savings!

I signed up to be a vendor at the 2020 Fair or am interested in having a space at the 2021 Fair, who do I contact? Please send all questions and inquiries to frontdesk@alamedacountyfair.com and your question will be routed appropriately.

What events are happening on the Fairgrounds? Per the current Alameda County Health Order, modified indoor and outdoor events are permitted. For more information, please visit our website at alamedacountyfair.com.

For additional questions, please email frontdesk@alamedacountyfair.com.