Comedian Iliza Shlesinger to Bring Iliza's Comedy Tailgate Tour to the Fairgrounds

Tickets On Sale Now

Pleasanton, Calif. – Coming to the Alameda County Fairgrounds, Comedian Iliza Shlesinger is hitting the road with Iliza's Comedy Tailgate Tour. With five Netflix specials currently streaming, including her most recent Unveiled and Elder Millennial, she is one of today's leading comedians with a legion of fans who create and wear their own Iliza inspired swag to her shows.

The 9-city trek will bring Iliza to drive-in theaters, including at the Alameda County Fairgrounds. Socially distanced and safe in their cars, fans will catch every second of Iliza's set in real time through their car radio. Tickets on sale now at www.iliza.com.

Iliza has kept busy in 2020, starring opposite Mark Wahlberg in the #1 Netflix film Spenser Confidential and launching The Iliza Shlesinger Sketch Show on the platform. Stuck at home during the pandemic, she and her husband, Chef James Beard and Award Nominated Author, Noah Galuten, launched Don't Panic Pantry. They created the follow-along-at-home cooking show to help keep people entertained while staying safe at home and has been featured on TODAY Show and The Talk. This past July she filled in as guest host on Jimmy Kimmel Live.

The Alameda County Fairgrounds is reinventing the classic drive-in to bring exciting, safe and new entertainment opportunities to the community. The right combination of technology and staffing offers guests a safe alternative to gather.
